

Top 5 Picks

1. Dark Of The Moon by John Sandford
2. The Midnight Road by Tom Piccirilli
3. The Secret Between Us by Barbara Delinsky
4. Living Like ED by Ed Begley, Jr.
5. Beyond The Horizon by Colin Angus

Dark Of The Moon introduces us to a new hero name of Virgil Flowers who works for the Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension brought in by an old favourite character of mine name of Lucas Davenport. Filled with audacious plotting, rich characters, and brilliant suspense that have always made his books a great read this is no exception.

The Midnight Road is a real thriller that will keep you reading far into the night. Flynn an investigator for Suffolk County Child Protective Services has seen more than his share of misery but nothing could prepare him for the nightmare inside the Shepards' million-dollar Long Island home. In less than an hour, that nightmare will send him plunging into a frozen harbor-and awaken him to a reality even more terrifying.

The Secret Between Us is an unforgettable story about making bad choices for the right reasons and the terrible consequences of a lie gone wrong.

Living Like ED. A committed environmentalist for more than thirty years, Ed Begley, Jr., has always tried to "live simply so others may simply live." Now, as more and more of us are looking for ways to reduce our impact on the planet and live a better, green life, Ed shares his experiences on what works, what doesn't – and what will save you money! These are tips for environmentally friendly living that anyone – whether you own or rent, live in a private home or apartment – can try to make a positive change for the environment. From quick fixes to bigger commitments and long-term strategies, Ed will help you make changes in every part of your life. A good read.

Beyond The Horizon. In June 2004, Colin Angus left Vancouver on his bicycle. Nearly two years later, he rolled back in, looking like a castaway, having completed the first human-powered circumnavigation of the globe. He showed the world that if he can travel 43,000 kilometres without polluting the planet, than the rest of us can get off our butts and clean up our own acts. A thought provoking read.

Other books waiting for you are The Winter Rose by Jennifer Donnelly, Bleeding Kansas by Sara Paretsky and Hand of Evil by J.A. Jance.
Happy Reading and See you at your library.
