Top 5 Picks for June

1. Miracle on the 17th by James Patterson
2. Deliver Us From Evil by David Baldacci
3. Falcon Seven by James W. Huston
4. House Rules by Jodi Picoult
5. Easy Garden Projects to Make, Build and Grow

Hope everyone is enjoying this lovely weather. This is the time to sit out in the lounge chair with a good book, and your library has lots of them! Also, remember, at the Mindemoya library you can come in and write your boater's exam so you will have your operator's boating card when you go out on the beautiful Island lakes. Just call at 377-5334 to make an appointment. The test is an hour long and costs $35.

Miracle on the 17th by James Patterson: Miracles happen...but only if you believe. Travis McKinley's life has drifted sideways. His job, his marriage, even his children all feel disconnected and distant. Has he really accomplished nothing of consequence in his life? One Christmas Day, Travis plays a round of golf and finds himself for the first time in the zone, playing like a pro. In astonishingly short order, Travis is catapulted into the PGA Senior Open at Pebble Beach, where he advances to the final round. And while his wife, his children, and a live television audience watch, a miracle takes place that changes Travis, and his family, forever. A nice story.

Deliver Us From Evil by

David Baldacci returns with his most surprising, heart-stopping, and timely thriller to date. Evan Waller is a monster. He has built a fortune from his willingness to buy and sell anything—and anyone. In search of new opportunities, Waller has just begun a new business venture, one that could lead to millions of deaths all over the globe. Lots of remarkable characters, breathtaking plot turns, and blockbuster finale make this one of them most gripping thrillers of the year.

Falcon Seven by James W. Huston: This story explodes with international intrigue, sizzling courtroom drama and heart-stopping action. This book delivers an all-too-realistic tale of America under fire.

House Rules by Jodi Picoult: This is a story about a family torn apart by an accusation of murder. Emotionally powerful from beginning to end, House Rules looks at what it means to be different in our society, how autism affects a family, and how our legal system works well for people who communicate a certain way, while failing those who don't. A thought-provoking read.

Easy Garden Projects to Make, Build, and Grow: 200 Do-It-Yourself

Ideas to Help You Grow Your Best Garden Ever: This book shows you how to build plant supports such as trellises and teepees. It tells you how to solve problems with pests, ingenious ways to water, attracting wildlife to your garden, and special crops for handy gardeners. A very helpful book, it gives you lots of ideas.

Hope everyone is enjoying these lovely long days. See you at your library.
