

Media advisory

For immediate release

Lieutenant Governor to visit communities in Northern Ontario

Toronto, July 25, 2016. Her Honour the Hon. Elizabeth Dowdeswell, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, will conduct official visits to the communities of Sault Ste. Marie, Elliot Lake, Manitoulin Island, and Northern Bruce Peninsula during a tour of the region from Wednesday, July 27 to Saturday, July 30, 2016. The tour is part of Her Honour's continuing program of travel to communities in Ontario.

Contact:

John Gross

Office of the Lieutenant Governor

john.gross@ontario.ca

416-325-7786

Follow LGLizDowdeswell on Facebook and Twitter
Itinerary

JULY 29, 2016

12:30 p.m. – Visit to the Central Manitoulin Municipal Complex

6020 Highway 542, Mindemoya

After meeting municipal councillors and staff, the Lieutenant Governor will participate in a courtesy call with Central Manitoulin Mayor Richard Stephens.

Photo opportunity

Media contact: Ruth Frawley, Municipality of Central Manitoulin, centeralm@amtelecom.net, 705-377-5726x32

1 p.m. – Visit to Mindemoya Community Hall

6032 Highway 542, Mindemoya

The Lieutenant Governor will join mayors of other Manitoulin Island municipalities and representatives of local First Nations during a roundtable focusing on social cohesion in the community. Her Honour will then attend a reception hosted by the Mayor of Central Manitoulin. Present will be roundtable participants and staff from Central Manitoulin and other Island municipalities.

Informal remarks

Media availability, roundtable closed to media

Media contact: Ruth Frawley, Municipality of Central Manitoulin, centeralm@amtelecom.net, 705-377-5726x32

2:35 p.m. – Visit to the Central Manitoulin Welcome Centre

2207 Highway 551, Mindemoya

During a tour of the Central Manitoulin Welcome Centre, the Lieutenant Governor will meet with summer students; Ted Taylor, President of the Central Manitoulin Historical Society; and Pat Costigan, curator of the Central Manitoulin Historical Society-Pioneer Museum.

Photo opportunity Media contact: Ruth Frawley, Municipality of Central Manitoulin,
centeralm@amtelecom.net, 705-377-5726x32